

MR. J. T. HINTON RETIRES FROM ACTIVE BUSINESS.

Turns Over Large Furniture Business To His Three Sons.

CAREER IS CLOSED AFTER 54 YEARS.

Change Became Effective Yesterday--To Be Known As The J. T. Hinton Co.

After a business career extending over a period of fifty-four years, Mr.
J. T. Hinton, prominent furniture dealer, retired from active business yesterday, and his extensive interests in this department have been turned over to his three sons, Messrs. W. O.
Hinton, Edward Hinton and Albert Hinton.

In the future the business, which is perhaps the largest of its kind in Central Kentucky, will be conducted by these gentlemen, who for many years have been identified with the interests of their father, and the establishment will be known as the J.
T. Hinton Company, the name of the head of the concern for so many years being retained.

Mr. Hinton, who retires to spend his declining years free from cares of the business world, began his career as a poor boy, and by steady application amassed a fortune. He is the son of the late Richard E. and Elizabeth Hinton, his father being a hatter
by trade, and was engaged in this enterprise in Paris. At the age of sixteen years Mr. Hinton entered as an apprentice cabinet maker under Mr.
George W. Davis, serving four years, and remained with Mr. Davis two years, when he engaged in business for himself, opening an establishment in 1860, which he has conducted with marked success for more than half a century, and which takes its place among the leading furniture and undertaking establishments of the State.

Beginning on a small scale and with his close attention to business he soon assumed a prominent place among the mercantile interests of the city. During his many years of uninterrupted business activity, he never met with any embarrassment in a financial way, and survived the stormy period during the war of the rebellion when so many citizens suffered the ravages of war and had all of their earthly possessions taken away.

Mr. Hinton is perhaps the oldest business man in Central Kentucky.
He was born on January 29, 1837, and a few days before turning over his extensive interests to his sons, celebrated his seventy-seventh birthday.
Although advanced in years, he is extremely active, and has rarely failed to be at his place of business, only illness and matters pertaining to his public life taking his attention.

Following in the footsteps of their father his three sons have developed into industrious business men, and duties placed in their hands, it is needless to state, will be well executed, and the future of the extensive furniture business will be as successful as in the past.

In addition to his personal interests, Mr. Hinton has for years been identified with several other institutions. He is at present vice president of the Bourbon Bank and a director in the Agricultural Bank of Paris. As an officer in these institutions he has contributed in no small degree to the success of these two well established banking houses.

Mr. Hinton is at present serving his fifth term as Mayor of Paris, and his decision to retire from business activity is no indication that he will retire from the political arena, after a long line of victories, and the fact that he has made an earnest and efficient public official.

During this age of progressiveness Mr. Hinton has forged ahead and has made for himself a place in the fore-ranks of the business and official life of his city and State. He is the highest type of Kentucky citizenship, and his absence from business activity will be very conspicuous.

SAW SHADOW, SO LOOK OUT-- SIX WEEKS BAD WEATHER

Yesterday, the second of February, was the day for Mr. Groundhog, weather prophet, to make his annual prognostication and according to the time-worn belief, we may expect most any kind of weather for the next six weeks to come. Yesterday was a bright, clear day for the scheduled appearance of the groundhog, and he emerged from his winter home doubtless he saw his shadow and returned to await the passing of a month and a half before venturing out again.

LIFE CRUSHED OUT WHEN AUTO TURNS TURTLE

One Harrodsburg Man Killed and Another in Precarious Condition.

BROKEN STEERING GEAR THE CAUSE

Accident Occurred About 11 O'Clock, But Not Discovered Until Daylight.

LEXINGTON, KY., Feb. 2.—As the result of an automobile accident two and a half miles from this city on the Harrodsburg pike last night, Lisle Edwards, aged twenty-one, is dead,
and Buford Terhune, aged twenty-two,
is in a precarious condition at the hospital from exposure.

Both young men are members of prominent families residing at Har-rodsburg.

Last night they drove over to Lexington in the car and upon returning home about 11 o'clock the steering gear got out of fix and the machine turned turtle in a stream near the road, pinning the occupants under it.
They were not discovered until daylight this morning.

Edwards was dead, having been frozen to death under the automobile, while Terhune, who had lain in the water all night in a semi-conscious condition, was half dead from exposure. Neither had any bones broken.
The car was considerably damaged.

Edwards was the son of President
Edwards, of the State Bank and Trust Company, at Harrodsburg, while Terhune is prominently connected. Relatives of the two young men have been notified and are now on their way to Lexington to render what assistance they can.

BLUE GRASS CASE IS DECIDED IN CLARK COURT

The noted "Blue Grass seed cases" that for over seven years have occupied the attention of the courts were decided in favor of the defendants by Judge Benton at Winchester, yesterday. Spears & Sons and J. Sims Wilson, of Paris, and Dave Gay, of Winchester, brought suit in the Bourbon Circuit Court against C. S. Brent &
Bro., and R. B. Hutchcraft, of Paris;
Bush Nelson, of Lexington; and G. M.
Taylor, of Georgetown, for their failure to deliver certain carloads of blue grass seed purchased by the plaintiffs. Brent and others answered claiming the plaintiffs formed a conbination in restraint of trade, and had secured the contracts by misrepresentation. Judge Stout held these answers "good on" demurrer. The plaintiffs then had the cases dismised without prejudice, and filed their petitions in the Clark Circuit Court.
Judge Benton held the answer sufficient and gave judgment against the defendants. The case was appealed and Judge Benton's ruling reversed. The first trial resulted in a hung jury, standing 7 to 5 in favor of the defendants. At the next term of court the jury stood 8 to 4 in favor of the defendants. By agreement the law and facts were submitted to the Court without the intervention of a jury.
After considering the questions at issue for several weeks Judge Benton gave a written opinion in favor of Brent & Bro. and their associates.
The amount involved is over $12,000.
The attorneys for Spears, Gay and by, Juett & Juett and Mr. Stephenson, for Brent & Bro. and their associates, Judge Harmon Stitt and Pendleton, Bush & Bush.

It is said that the plaintiffs will appeal.

WILL OF JAMES STEWART IS PROBATED IN BOURBON COURT

The last will and testament of the late James A. Stewart, who died suddenly at Wheeling, W. Va., about six weeks ago, but who made Paris his home for many years, and who had a large number of friends here both in judicial and social circles, was probated in Judge C. A. McMillan's court.

The will was written entirely in the handwriting of Mr. Stewart, and bears the date of April 4, 1910. He requested that his life-long friends,
Dr. J. A. Wilson and Mr. Joseph H.
Evatt, both of Paris, act as executors of his estate, consisting of cash, life insurance, notes, warehouse receipts,
etc., all of which is left to his niece, Mrs. Curtis P. Brown, and her two children, James Stewart Brown and Virginia Brown.

After the will was filed the executors named qualified, giving bond in the sum of $5,000. Dr. M. H. Dailey, William H. Webb and George Alexander were named as appraisers of the estate by Judge McMillan.

PAST WEEKS' SALES ARE BEST OF THE TOBACCO SEASON

Total Sales Amounted to The Large Sum of $101,303.52

POORER GRADES ARE IN EVIDENCE

Prices at Saturday's Sale
Range From $2 to $44
Per Hundred.

The past week was an unusually good one on the local tobacco market
when during the three sales an aggregate of $66,000 pounds sold for a total of $101,333.53. In spite of the poor grade of the offering good prices were realized, and the best judges were of the opinion that the sales were the best held during the season.
Throughout the week the floors were flooded with the very poorest of offerings. This was due to the extremely dry weather, which made the handling of tobacco difficult, the growers being unwilling to risk the better grade in handling, and as a consequence only the most inferior was consigned.

At the sale Tuesday 286,530 pounds were sold for $33,300.28, or an average of $11.62 per hundred. Thursday the sales amounted to 284,995 pounds, an average of $11.40 per hundred.

At the sale Saturday 294,475 pounds were sold for $35,583.85, an average of from $2 to $44 per hundred. The latter was one of the highest of the present season.

Some of the crop averages for Saturday were:

Whitson & Vaughan, 5,190 pounds,
for $755.29, average, $14.55.
I. N. Keller & Son, 2,180 pounds,
for $339.01, average, $15.55.
J. S. Reynolds & Judy, 2,485 pounds
for $382.11, average $15.45.
E. K. Thomas & Myers, 7,540
pounds, for $1,852.55, average $13.95.
Plummer, McMillan & Smith, 6,440
pounds, for $794.38, average $12.33.
T. J. Harney, 8,720 pounds, for $1,
355.50, average, $15.65.
Clark & Letton, 5,890 pounds, average, $15.59.

Clay & Brannel, 15,755 pounds, for $239.85, average, $14.66.

W. F. Cain, 9,740 pounds, for $1,
727.27, average, $13.61.

J. W. Young, 4,140 pounds, for $42.27, average, $14.11.

Webber & Gardner, 3,045 pounds,
for $487.63, average, $16.01.

Daniel & Delaney, 4,610 pounds, for $586.77, average, $12.72.

Redmon & Wheeler, 6,220 pounds,
for $839.75, average, $13.50.

Plummer & McClure, 5,755 pounds
for $1,105.31, average, $19.14.

Milton Frederick, 1,005 pounds for
$2.39, average, $13.17.

Talbot & Doyle, 22,970 pounds for $332.28, average, $13.68.

D. M. Frederickson, 4,280 pounds,
for $604.34, average, $14.13.

Crouch & Cunningham, 4,180
pounds for $519.01, average, $12.41.

E. B. Allen, 5,305 pounds for $679-
average, $12.80.

Lake Keller, 3,585 pounds for $457-
average, $12.76.

C. B. Curtis, 12,295 pounds for $1,
217.27, average, $12.54.

Thompson & Webb, 6,385 pounds,
for $845.85, average, $13.24.

Thompson & Holloway, 2,475
pounds, for $547.24, average $15.74.

Craycraft & McClure, 2,630 pounds,
for $344.29, average $13.09.

CARLISLE

Over 1,027,920 pounds of tobacco
was disposed of on the Carlisle market during the past week. Prices from $2 to $41 per hundred. During the past week several extra high priced baskets of tobacco were disposed of on the market.

HARRODSBURG

Last week's sales at the Farmers' Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouse puts them over the 2,000,000 market. Monday's sales were the best of the season. 111,330 pounds averaged $12.80.

MT. STERLING.

The loose leaf tobacco market in Mt. Sterling was quite active during the week and over 800,000 pounds were sold. The quality of the offerings was very inferior, probably the worst since the market opened. Grade prices have been higher all down the line, quality considered, than at any time during the selling season.

AFFLICTED TOBACCO PLANTS

Should Be Removed From The Field.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2.—A serious disease to tobacco plants, which often greatly damage the crop has been carefully studied by scientists of the Department of Agriculture. The Department has just issued an extensive report describing the nature and symptoms of the disease and such methods of control as have been found effective. Careful experiment has shown that certain insects spread this disease, and in greenhouses, plants screened with fine cloth and fumigated with a nicotine pepper were kept free from it. In the field, the only method of control at present available seems to be the prompt removal of all plants infected with the disease.

Laborers in the operation of worming, and suckering and topping the tobacco plants may readily communicate infection from diseased to healthy plants, for if healthy plants are brought in contact with the sap of diseased plants the malady is apt to develop. This is in addition to the spread of the disease by insects, and as the infection is so readily carried it is obvious that afflicted plants are always infection centers so long as they remain in the field.

The methods of fumigation tried in the greenhouse experiments proved so successful that the question of their application to the seed-bed is now under consideration by the Department. The keeping of the "mosaic" infection from the seed-bed seems a most important means of controlling its introduction and spread in the field. In so far as outbreaks of the disease may occur directly in the field the matter of successful control probably will be found to be exceedingly difficult. This is a matter still being investigated by the Department's scientists.

The development of the mosaic disease, commonly spoken of as "calico," in tobacco plants produces very noticeable change in their appearance. The blossoms of the plant are often distorted; the leaves may be dwarfed, distorted and blistered and are always more or less mottled; frequently the entire plant is dwarfed. In very young plants at the two-leaved or three-leaved stage, and in much larger plants, in the rosette stage, the first visible symptom of the disease usually appears a slight downward curling and distortion of the smallest, innermost leaves.

The disease is known locally in many sections by different names. In the tobacco sections of Kentucky and Tennessee "walloon" is often used. The disease has also been termed "chlorosis," "mottled-top," "calico," etc.

The new bulletin regarding this disease can be had free on application to the Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C. The bulletin is No. 40, of the Department series and is entitled "The Mosaic Disease of Tobacco."

"COL" BOONE, PROMOTOR, INDICTED IN OHIO.

On information furnished by the State Banking Department Col. Albert Boone, railroad promotor, was indicted by the grand jury at Zanesville, O., on a charge of violation of the "Blue Sky" law. When arraigned he did not plead, but bond was fixed at $200. He promoted many railroads in Ohio West Virginia and Kentucky, and is well-known throughout the United States.

"Col." Boone was the promotor of the Black Diamond railroad scheme, now passed into history, and is pleasantly (?) remembered in Cynthia and other Kentucky cities.

FEAR LAND GRABBERS IN FARM LOANS PLAN.

Fear that speculators who wish to sell land, rather than farmers who wish to borrow money, will benefit from the passage of rural credit bill, has caused some of the members of the House Committee on Banking and Currency to call for a hearing. Bulkley, of Cleveland, is Chairman.

During the hearing of S. C. Hobbs and J. C. Kennett, members of the Legislature, before the National Farmers'

Hobbs had told the committee that the country is facing a bread famine and the farmers were not being helped by the Government to care for the increase in population.

He told the committee that he feared the lines of that introduced by Congressman Bathrick, which provided for loans by the Government at 4 1/2 per cent, meantime borrowing money on U. S. bonds at 3 1/2 per cent.

He declared the need for farmers to borrow capital with which to bring their land to the point of highest efficiency is imperative, but that this is impossible under existing conditions.

Bulkley and members of the committee pressed Hobbs as to what the increase of farm land values would be if the interest rate was cut from 8 per cent, the present average, to 4 1/2 per cent, as provided by the Bathrick bill.

Hobbs explained that the average farm in the United States is 138 acres, and the average farm mortgage $1,244. The average reduction in interest per farm, he figured, would be $51.48, or 37 cents an acre.

Congressman Hayes, however, declared that he believed the saving thus made by the rural credit plan would be offset by increased taxes on a heightened valuation.

"I figure that this $51.48 is 5 per cent, of more than $1,000, or on the average farm, of from $7 to $8 an acre. Will not that be added to the value of the farm land?"

"The chief needs of the farmer," Kennett told the committee, "are interest rates and longer time loans."

"THE PAINTED DESERT" AT SAN DIEGO EXPOSITION

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 2.—The promise of a great Indian exhibit at the San Diego Exposition is to be more than fulfilled. "The Painted Desert," is the name given to the exhibit made by the Santa Fe Railway company, and this part of the Exposition as now planned will embrace the mode of living, the industries, the handicrafts, the sports and the ceremonials of all the wonderful Indian tribes of Arizona and New Mexico.

The real "Painted Desert," so called because of the vivid coloring of its surface caused by deposits of various highly colored stones, is in Northern Arizona, and a part of the Navajo Indian Reservation. Six acres of ground on the site of the Exposition will be used for reproductions of characteristic scenes on the "Painted Desert," and here representatives of all of the famous tribes of Arizona and New Mexico will be brought, to be seen by Exposition visitors at work and at play. In the hogans and teepees they will live, just as they live when they are at home, and in the community houses of the New Mexico tribes, exhibits of their handicraft will be seen.

The Snake Dance of the Hopis, the Sun Dance, and all of the other dances on the "Painted Desert" at San Diego many times during the year of the Exposition. Indian games and sports will be seen, and also the blanket weaving and bead embroidering.

All this is to be supplemental to the archaeological and ethnological exhibit which the Exposition is gathering, and which will be the greatest exhibit of its kind ever made at any exposition.

When German Bark Hera Sinks Off the Coast of Chili.

FALMOUTH, ENGLAND, Feb. 2.—Capt. Lorenz, the first officer, and seventeen of the crew of the German bark Hera, from Pisagua, Chili, for Falmouth, lost their lives Sunday, through the vessel striking a rock as she had almost concluded her voyage. The remaining five men were saved through the gallantry of the first officer, who, realizing his own end was near, handed his whistle to a comrade with orders to blow it.

This attracted the attention of the crew of a lifeboat, who rescued the men from the rigging.

The Hera encountered a gale at the entrance of the English Channel. She lost her course and struck on the rocks near Porthalia Bight. The vessel immediately filled and the men took to the boats, which capsized.

Eight succeeded in getting back to the ship, but three of them were washed off before the lifeboat arrived. Two first officer, who was lashed to the rigging, blew his whistle until the rising tide had almost engulfed him. Then he passed it over with the remark:

"Here, chum, you can do better with that than I can," and fell back dead.

NOTICE FROM HEALTH BOARD.

Physicians and heads of families are respectfully referred to Section 2060 of the Kentucky Statutes, which provides as follows:

"Section 2060.—Any physician or head of a family who shall fail or refuse to report to the local Board of Health in cases of cholera, smallpox, yellow fever, scarlet fever, diphtheria and other epidemic diseases as provided for in Section 2055 of the act mentioned in the title of this act, shall be fined not less than five dollars for each day he neglects or refuses to report. (Section as amended by Act of March 3, 1894)

Please take due notice and govern yourselves accordingly.

YOUNG PEOPLE ORGANIZE MISSIONARY SOCIETY

A new society, known as the Young People's Missionary Society, has recently been organized in the Methodist church with the following officers: President, Miss Frances Hancock; first vice-president, Miss Sara Power; second vice-president, Miss Elizabeth Mann; third vice-president, Miss Edith Hancock; fourth vice-president, Miss Gladys Snapp; secretary, Miss Maude Taylor; corresponding secretary, Miss Alva Neal; treasurer, Miss Edna Snapp.

These young people meet the second Tuesday in each month, and are a very successful sale of good things to eat Saturday, realizing a nice sum.

Next Thursday Mrs. O. B. Crockett, of Nicholasville, will be in Paris to install the officers of the new organization; and Mrs. Grubbs, of Winchester, will also be here to attend and address an all-day meeting of the Women's Missionary Society at the Methodist church. The program will be announced later.

MR. D. M. ROBINS MAKES ADDRESS TO LARGE CROWD

At the Methodist church Sunday afternoon, a large audience was present to hear Dr. D. M. Robins in his address on "The Man Worth While." Mr. Robins is secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Versailles, and is a young man of pleasing personality and great earnestness of manner. His address was eloquent and effective, and made an impression upon his hearers that will not be soon effaced.

Mr. Charles M. Griffin, secretary of the Paris Y. M. C. A., presided, and Prof. A. H. Morehead rendered an appropriate solo.

MISSION CIRCLE CLEARS HANDSOME SUM

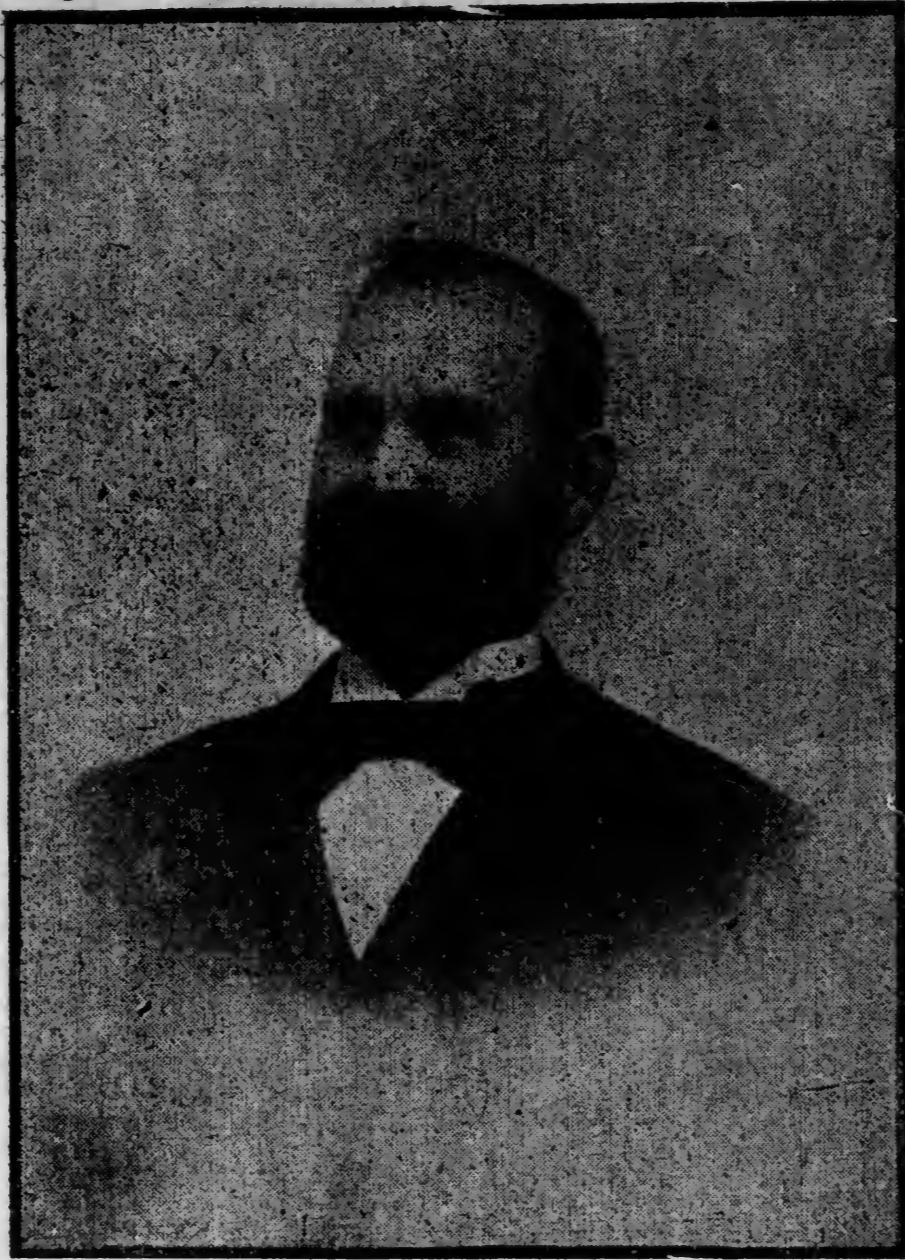

The Young Ladies' Mission Circle of the Christian church cleared about $40 on the series of four afternoon teas which held last month, the last one being held Saturday. They deserve much credit for their success and for the dainty and generous service rendered their patrons.

WIND MOVES TURNABLE; ENGINE BACKED INTO PIT

Saturday afternoon at Maysville during the high wind, the L. & N. turntable, which had been fixed to turn engine No. 114 for train No. 10, due in this city at 3:20 p. m., was turned by the wind and when the engine was run on it the tender was thrown off the table into the pit. The accident delayed the train two hours, and an engine was sent from this city to carry the train through to Stanford, Saturday night.

APPROACH OF SPRING REVIVES BASE BALL TALK

Base ball is booming in Maysville as the opening of spring draws near, and sentiment to get behind a winning club is growing. The club has been reorganized, with Thomas A. Keith, president; Henry Shea, vice president; Roy Cochran, secretary; to secure funds to start the season is by the sale of stock at $25 per share, eighty shares being offered for sale. One firm contributed $100 to the team and another citizen subscribed for seven shares of stock. From present prospects a team seems assured.

Ed Monroe, the lanky pitcher formerly with the Paris team, who was and formed by them to the Lincoln team of the Western League, is dissatisfied with his new berth, and has written to the Lexington management asking that they buy his release, as he wants to play there again.

Pitcher Jake Schenck, and outfielder Kenner Shelton, former Blue Grass League stars, are holdouts from the Columbus Association team, but both will probably sign up their contracts in a few days.

President Gableman, of the Portsmouth team, has mailed contracts to infielders Thomas Dunlap, of Hymen, Ind., and Ed. Coosetree, of Clarksville, Tenn. These former stars were secured by Portsmouth from the Lexington team.

ENTER PROTEST AGAINST THE DIVISION OF PIKE COUNTY

A dispatch from Frankfort Saturday said: "The Rev. J. W. Redd, of Millersburg; J. A. Scott, Tom Hatcher and other residents of Pike county are in Frankfort, working to forestall a rumored attempt to secure the division of Pike county."

"The Rev. Redd, who is one of the State trustees of the Anti-Saloon League, says that the attempted division is for the purpose of making that part of Kentucky a dumping place for the saloons of West Virginia which will be driven out of the neighboring State next July, when the State wide prohibition law goes into effect there. They allege that the liquor people are behind the effort at division, and they are on the ground to fight the measure should it be introduced in the House."

"Pike county is at present dry, but the section in which the division is projected is inhabited by foreigners and liquor cause adherents. There would be little trouble of voting that section wet, in Rev. Redd's opinion, if it ever became separated from the rest of the county."

FUGITIVE FROM WHITESBURG IS CAPTURED IN THIS CITY

Will Wilson, a negro, is being held in jail here awaiting the arrival of the authorities from Whitesburg, Ky., from which place he is a fugitive from justice. He is charged with highway robbery and jail breaking, and is one of the five prisoners who escaped jail at that place last Monday night.

Wilson was taken into custody at a resort in the negro suburb of Claysville by Chief of Police Fred Link, and when lodged in jail admitted that he was one of the men wanted by the Whitesburg authorities. He told of how he and his companions planned the jail delivery, which was effected by prizing a large stone out of the wall and liberating all of the negro prisoners confined in the lower corridor of the structure. Since the escape he said he had been at several places and came to this city the latter part of last week, where he hoped to secure employment at one of the railroad construction camps.

He later gave the officers a description of another of the escaped prisoners, who he said was in Paris and from whom he had separated only a short time before his arrest. The Whitesburg authorities were apprised of the capture of the fugitive and they will arrive in a few days to take him to that city.

While in Claysville last night in search of the man implicated in the jail delivery at Whitesburg by Wilson, Chief Link arrested a negro who gave him name as Eddie Cleighton, on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. As the officer entered a house in which Cleighton was stopping, the negro made an attempt to draw a revolver.

FI FI FINE PERFORMANCE AND WELL ATTENDED

In spite of the inclement weather a full house greeted "Fi Fi of the Toy Shop," a musical fantasy given by the Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church, on Friday night.

The play began promptly, and from start to finish charmed an enthusiastic audience.

Miss Mary Mitchell Clay as "Bonnie, the Toyman's daughter," delighted every one. As the leading female character her acting was artistic and finished, and was complimented on all sides.

Miss Elizabeth Mann made a perfect "Fi Fi." As the French doll she was a vision of loveliness when the curtain rose, disclosing her to view. In her song with the Man in the Moon she was most attractive.

Miss Elizabeth Fisher, in the dual role of witch and fairy, did splendid work and delighted the audience.

Miss Mary Fithian Hutchcraft as "Inkspot," could not have been surpassed.

Miss Frances Clay, as "Loosey, the rag doll," played her part to perfection, while Miss Rachel Wiggins, the laughing doll, furnished much amusement.

Miss Anna Eads Peed made a splendid Japanese doll.

Mr. Hord Barnes, of Millersburg, "the Sandman," played an important part and sang two beautiful solos.

As the Man in the Moon, Mr. Wallace Clark was the principal male character and was admirable in both acting and singing.

Messrs. Harry Brent Fithian as Tackhammer, Harry Horton as Captain Barnacle, Prentice Lancaster as Prince Lolipop, and Harry Saloshin as Tin Heart, were prominent characters.

Introduced in the play were a number of attractive drills.

The China dolls drill by eight young girls was well executed and most attractive, and the Paper Dolls, with their charming personalities and pretty paper dresses, were a beautiful sight.

The Letter Blocks gave a splendid drill, spelling a well-known adage, while the Jumping Jacks and Noah's Ark Animals took their parts splendidly.

Eleven of our young society girls with Miss Elizabeth Brown as solo dancer, made the "Bridemaids Dance" a "thing of beauty."

Nothing could have been more charming than the fifty little fairies, who gracefully took part in a pretty drill and song, led by Mrs. Frank Fithian's beautiful voice.

Mrs. Fithian's singing and Mrs. M. H. Dalley's splendid accomplishments were features of the entertainment.

As a whole the performance was most creditable and satisfactory.

Our city and county are to be congratulated upon the large amount of talent displayed by those who took part in this delightful rendering of "Fi Fi."

PARIS HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS LEXINGTON GIRLS

By the score of 17 to 13 the girls' basketball team of the Paris High School defeated the five of the Lexington Girls' Gymnasium Saturday night in the gymnasium on Short street. The game was hard played and exciting, and the result was in doubt until the final whistle announced that the contest was over.

At the end of the first half the score stood 5 to 4 in favor of Lexington. The Lexington team opened the second half with a great start, but after that the Paris five opened up, and before they got through, had the game well won.

The Paris line-up was as follows: Ruth Chambers and Gertrude Slicer, guards; Lona McCord, center; Ellen Henry and Carey Rose, forwards; substitutes, Lena Rose and Florence Ellis.

TUBERCULOSIS COMMISSION TELLS OF LOCAL CONDITIONS

"Most people do not realize the various ways in which a case of tuberculosis affects a community," said Mr. Roy L. French, Secretary of the State Tuberculosis Commission.

"There are in Bourbon county two families with which I am somewhat acquainted, where the adults are afflicted with consumption."

"There are six or seven small children in these two families. The two fathers are so far advanced with the disease that there is little chance of their recovery. Already the two mothers show suspicious signs of being affected with the disease. In case they go these young children will have to be cared for in some orphan asylum, unless they are promptly adopted by some neighbor."

"In other words, two original cases of consumption, taking off the natural protectors of the families, will in addition mortgage the lives of several young children, possibly deprive them of natural home life, and probably pitch them into the world with incompetent educations. In addition, these children, quite possibly, have been infected so that an illness in their teens or their twenties may allow the development of this hidden infection."

"If the first cases had been discovered promptly by a physician and educated by a visiting trained nurse, additional deaths might have been avoided. When one considers that about one-sixth of the deaths in Paris are from consumption, the opportunity for effective service can be readily seen. Why cannot the people of Paris divert some of their funds given for charitable purposes to this scheme of life-saving?"

"The Sandman," played an important part and sang two beautiful solos.

As the Man in the Moon, Mr. Wallace Clark was the principal male character and was admirable in both acting and singing.

Messrs. Harry Brent Fithian as Tackhammer, Harry Horton as Captain Barnacle, Prentice Lancaster as Prince Lolipop, and Harry Saloshin as Tin Heart, were prominent characters.

TIPTON WITHDRAWS FROM FASIG-TIPTON CO.

Ed. A. Tipton, president of the Ky. Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, and manager of C. K. G. Billings, Curly's Neck Farm in Virginia, has resigned as president of the Fasig-Tipton Sales Company, of New York, and sold his stock in the company to E. J. Tranter.

This information was contained in a telegram received Saturday morning from Mr. Tipton, who is in New York. He will be succeeded as president by Mr. Tranter, who for the last ten years has been a partner of Mr. Tipton in the company.

Mr. Tipton has been at the head of the company since its organization in 1899. Close attention to the management of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association affairs made his resignation necessary.

SUCCESSFUL FIGHT ON HOG CHOLERA

Gratifying results marked the efforts of the Government, Department of Agriculture during the past year to combat hog cholera in Indiana, Missouri, Iowa and Nebraska by means of anti-hog cholera serum and farm quarantines. In a statement today it is asserted that of the hogs actually sick when treated the department's inspectors lost but 25 per cent. Of well hogs in diseased herds less than 1 per cent. died after inoculation with serum.

"In every country where the use of serum and quarantine measures were inaugurated, even though begun after the disease had continued its ravages for some time," says the statement, "there was less loss from hog cholera than in either of the preceding years."

The government expects to extend the work gradually all over the country until the disease is either brought under control or entirely eliminated. Co-operation of farmers, it is necessary, it is suggested, to a successful campaign.

TO MY PATRONS.

In retiring from active retail business life, in which I have been engaged constantly since 1860, I desire to express to the people of this county and to many even beyond this county, my sincerest, heartfelt gratitude for the liberal patronage they have given me and through which they have made it possible for me to succeed beyond my early expectations.

It has always been my endeavor to merit this patronage by giving in return good values and fair treatment, and the substantial manner in which the public has shown its appreciation of my efforts has been a source of great pleasure to me.

In turning over the business to my sons who have been associated with me from twenty to thirty-one years, I do so with every confidence that they will maintain the high principles of business integrity and honest dealings which it has been my endeavor to follow at all times, and that they will so serve the public as to deserve the same generous share of business that has been given to me and I ask for them a continuance of the confidence and patronage that has been shown me all through the past fifty-four years.

Though retiring from active retail life, other affairs and the many associations of the past and present are sufficient for me always to have the keenest interest in the welfare of this community and to do all within my power for its success.

With deepest appreciation for the many pleasant relations brought with my long business experience.

Respectfully,
J. T. HINTON.

FIRE DESTROYS RESIDENCE IN SUBURB OF CLAYSVILLE.

Fire which started from a defective flue destroyed a cottage in Clayville last night about eight o'clock. The house belonged to James Corbin, colored. It adjoined a house occupied by Thomas Sherley and family, who are ill with small-pox. The fire department responded to a call from box 26, but there being no hydrant in the negro suburb, which is beyond the city limits, the firemen could not render any assistance. No effort was made to save the house which was rapidly consumed by the flames and every effort were centered in saving the house occupied by Sherley. It was only slightly damaged.

MOTHER! IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give
"California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish;
stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipated poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit ing syrups.
Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle.
Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled.

COLD WAVE SAVES FRUIT CROPS OF THIS SECTION

A cold wave has saved the fruit
at this section from imminent peril.
Fruit growers were fearful of the warm weather, believing that a few more days of the summer weather would bring the buds to a point where they would be killed by the later freezes. It has been the most remarkable weather ever known here.

ROBBERS LOOT POST- OFFICE AT CRAB ORCHARD

The post office at Crab Orchard, in Lincoln county, was robbed Thursday night of about $1,200 in money and stamps, there being $200 to $300 in money and the remainder in stamps.

The safe was blown open, being practically wrecked, and its entire contents taken.

Nitroglycerine was used on the safe
but no one in town heard the report, as twelve or fifteen mail sacks had been wrapped around the safe to deaden the sound. These were scattered about the room by the force of the explosion.

Entrance to the postoffice building was secured by means of tools which the robbers had secured by breaking open the Louisville & Nashville tool-house nearby. The tools were found on the floor of the postoffice in the morning when the robbery was discovered.

A train goes through Crab Orchard early in the morning, and it is presumed that the robbers escaped by that means.

BURLESON FAVORS GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 31.—Government monopolization of telegraph, telephone and wireless communication "and such other means for the transmission of intelligence as may hereafter develop," is recommended in a report submitted to the Senate by Postmaster General Burleson.

Immediate Government ownership of telephone lines is recommended with a system of license for the other agencies of communication, establishing a Government monopoly even where there is no actual ownership.

The report is that made to the Postmaster General by a special committee appointed by him and was transmitted to the Senate in response to a resolution asking that he make an investigation of the subject as an extension of the postal service.

The report points out that the founders of the nation were alive to the importance of keeping under the Government control all means of communication and provided in the constitution that Congress shall have power to establish postoffices and post roads.

It was clearly the intention, the report adds, that the Government should control every means of transmitting intelligence. The postal service has already adopted practically every means of transmission except electricity and yet the United States alone, of all nations, the committee points out, has left to private enterprise, has left to private enterprise telephone and telegraph facilities.

"These facilities are now for the classes," the report comments, "under Government ownership they will be for the masses."

Government ownership of the telephone, rather than the telegraph lines, is recommended for the reason that telegraph service can be more readily superimposed on telephone lines than telephone service on telegraph lines. It is pointed out also that because of the great cost involved, it would be unwise from a commercial point of view for the Government to acquire by purchase the telegraph lines.

The telegraph business is on the wane as compared to the telephone business, the report says, and in the decade of 1900 to 1910, while the population of the country increased about 18 per cent, the average daily telephone connections increased 387 per cent, and the number of telegraph messages only about 18 per cent.

The telegraph companies, the committee says, have already lost most of their short distance business owing to the development of the toll telephone service and will probably lose much of the long distance business when the toll rates become adjusted on a cost basis.

Another objection to acquiring the telegraph lines is that even the duplicate plans of rival companies would be inadequate because the lines have been extended only to profitable territory.

The cost of acquiring the telegraph facilities is estimated at $225,000,000 as against $200,000,000 for the long distance and telephone lines. As there are some 3,000 proprietors of telephone lines, payments would extend over a period that would allow ample time to market bonds, the report adds.

THE BEST COUGH MEDICINE

"I've used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since I have been keeping house," says L. C. Hames, of Murray, Ala. "I consider it one of the best remedies I have ever used. The cattle of Brazil, according to Dr. A. D. Melvin, are not of such good quality as those of Argentina and Uruguay, and the stock is largely mixed with the zebu, or East Indian cattle. This strain of blood is very readily seen in most of the Brazilian cattle.

NOTABLE DECREASE IN RAIL ACCIDENTS

Railroad accidents in Kentucky during the year 1913, matters of railway legislation and other facts of interest are set forth in the annual report of the Kentucky Railroad Commission. Distribution of this volume was begun Thursday.

The book details present activities to increase the powers of the commission, reproduces in full the United States Supreme Court's ruling sustaining the rate making power of the Kentucky commission for cause and also the address of Laurence B. Finn, chairman of the commission, before the National Association of Railway Commissioners on the subject of "Shall Congress Extend the Power and Authority of the Federal Government Relative to the Regulation of Interstate Rates?"

One hundred and ninety-seven persons were killed and 1,173 employees were injured in railroad accidents in Kentucky from January 1 to December 1, 1913, the report states. Of this number 125 persons classed as trespassers were killed by steam roads and three by interurban lines; four passengers on steam roads met death although none were killed on the interurbans; eight persons were killed at railroad crossings and one met death at highway crossings. In addition to the 1,173 employees of the roads injured fifty-six were killed during the eleven months. Details of all fatal accidents contained in the reports of superintendents are given.

These figures by comparison with those of 1912 show decrease in number of accidents and fatalities during the last year. The figures for 1912 were as follows: Employees killed, 66; employees injured, 1,362; passengers killed, 6; persons killed at crossings, 22; trespassers killed, 135. This indicates a total of 229 fatalities.

Taxable tangible property of railroads, operating over 3,973 miles in the State, is listed at $70,241,609. This amount, it is stated, is an increase of $2,100,126 over the assessment of 1912.

INDIGESTION, GAS OR SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Time "Pape's Diapepsin!" In Five Minutes all Stomach Misery is Gone.

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and uric acid, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back. It's worth its weight in gold to the men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sour, sick, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world. (adv)

The Cause.

She loved him dearly
Brought him all
The pillows that she had;
Yet he could not Rest easily,
Because he felt so bad.

"Dear," she said, after she had looked at him in silence for a while. "You don't look comfortable."

"I'm not," he admitted wriggling uneasily in the Morris chair. "I don't know why exactly, but I'm not comfortable. You know how you feel sometimes without being able to explain why exactly."

"I'll bring you a pillow," she cried. And she brought him a pink and green one and adjusted it for him.

"Now are you comfortable?" she asked him. She looked charming in a yellow ochre house gown trimmed with seltzer sprays.

"No, I am not!" he said apologetically. "I don't know why, but I am not."

"I'll bring you another pillow," she said. And she did, bringing him a big one covered with those little rugs that come in cigarette boxes.

"No," he said musingly, worried. "I'm not comfortable yet."

She brought him three more pillows without helping matters much. And then with a sudden lighting up of his dark features he reached beneath him on the chair and held up a bright shining pointed object.

"What's this needle doing in the seat of my chair?" he cried.

"Oh," she cried, "perhaps that was what was troubling you."

And she didn't bring him any more cushions.

THE END.

The skeleton of a monstrous ante-luvian fish is reported to have been discovered on the beach near San Diego, Calif. Those old Concy Island sea serpent yarns may reach the sunny Southland soon.

DEMAND JAIL AS PENALTY IN NEW TRUST LAW

Jail cells for "malefactors of great wealth," and disintegration of mammoth monopolies by defining exactly what big business may and may not do, were amendments urged to the anti-trust law before the National House Judiciary Committee by members of the House.

Representative Henry, of Texas, chairman of the powerful rates committee, instigator of the "money trust" investigation; Representative Stanley, of Kentucky, chairman of the Stanley steel investigating committee, and Representative Lenroot, of Wisconsin, author of anti-trust measures, were called before the committee when hearings were resumed on the Administration bill.

Henry asked that labor and farmers' organizations be exempted from the Sherman law.

The House interstate commerce committee heard Corporation Commissioner Davis on the bill to establish an interstate trade commission.

THEATRICAL.

Columbia Theatre To-Day.

Love, jealousy, and a deep laid scheme pervaded by a serious disaster, make "Tripped in a Forest Fire" an exciting drama which absorbs the interest from start to finish.

Robert Newman and his mother give a house party at his shooting lodge in the Adirondacks. Among the guests are Vera Redmond, a romantic, imaginative girl with whom Robert is in love—and Inez Tremain who loves Robert. Inez overhears Vera refusing Robert's proposal of marriage because he is "too practical"—and being unable to attract him herself, as he can think of no one except Vera, she devises a plan for putting her rival out of his thoughts and hopes forever. The schemer invites an adventurous young man of her acquaintance to come and camp near the shooting lodge—with the prospect of winning a beautiful girl—and, incidentally, doing his old friend, Inez, a great service.

Dick Graham is dashing and picturesque—and things go pretty much as he has expected. Vera is attracted to him—they see more and more of one another—until all that remains is the right time and place for Dick to propose. Then the entire action is set aside by the serious business of saving the little community from a forest fire. Vera—on her way to meet Graham at his camp—is trapped in the flames—and her thrilling rescue reveals to her the devotion and heroism latent in her "too practical" lover.

"Tony's Sacrifice"—A new idea heart drama in which a lowly Italian sets a rare example of self sacrifice in the face of danger.

"The Woman Hater," a comedy reel will also be shown.

Alamo Theatre Today.

So many motion picture productions are predicted to "live forever," it seems trite to prophesy that "The Port of Doom," the latest Famous Players' release, is destined to accomplish this result. But verily necessitates the recording of this opinion. It is as unusual a production as the previous Famous Players' subjects, only more so. It established a new epoch in realism on the screen, and adds a new chapter to that branch of motion picture history devoted to the camera and mechanical effects of the art. The scenes of the sinking ship, with the decks submerged under water and the passengers and crew battling for their lives, is so realistic that it terrifies, rather than thrills. It is a spectacle wonderful to behold, and astounding to conceive.

Every great sea disaster mystifies and impresses humanity, with an overpowering awe. No tragedy that occurs on land so fascinates an oceanic fatality. Added to this impressive note is interwoven an astounding plot of daring, malice, criminality, love, devotion and danger. Audiences will sit through this production enthralled by dangers, a striking picture of human strength of heroism in the face of the most fearful death possible to conceive, on the merciless waters—these elements will transport the audience to world of thrilling imagination and faithful realism.

—Mr. Robert A. Thompson and Miss Emilee S. Harbett, both of Nicholas county, were married Saturday afternoon in the court house by Judge C. A. McMillan, it being the first marriage ceremony performed by him.

HELD TO AWAIT ACTION OF BOURBON GRAND JURY

Solicitors for magazines and periodicals operating in this city, had best have their credentials or give Paris a wide berth in the future, because they are very apt to land behind prison bars until their identity is fully established.

Yesterday Chief of Police Fred Link took E. J. Beagle, a white man, giving Cynthia as his home, into custody on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses and Judge E. B. January held him to await the action of the grand jury, in the sum of $200 bail. Beagle could not give bond and was committed to jail.

For the past two or three months, Beagle with an associate, has been operating in this city, particularly on court day and Saturday of each week, soliciting subscriptions for the Farm and Fireside, a periodical published in Springfield, O., giving as inducements to prospective subscribers various premiums of little value receiving cash for the subscriptions, but the papers were never supplied.

Chief Link has had a close watch kept on the two men for several weeks, and on January 8 secured from George Waggoner a subscription receipt. He communicated with the Crowell Publishing Company of Springfield and received a reply to the effect that they had no authorized agents operating in this section, and requested the police to arrest any person who claimed to be representing them.

Yesterday Beagle made his appearance in Paris and began his operations along the same lines as on previous occasions, but he had not proceeded far before he was placed under arrest. His companion eluded the officers and has not been apprehended but it is believed he can be located. Acting upon the instruction of the Crowell Publishing Co., Chief Link issues a request to all persons who "fell" for the game to communicate with him or supply him with the receipt they received.

LITTLE GIRL SUES U. S. FOR $100,000

A St. Louis girl of 8 has sued Uncle Sam in three courts for $100,000 as recompense for the act of her grandfather, Capt. Samuel Houston, in sinking his boat during the Civil War in order to save a cargo of arms from the Confederate army.

The little girl is Houston's only surviving relative.

So realistic, indeed, in every factor of the story made, that the productions can be symbolized as the tide of life surging through the waters of destiny.

DEATHS.

BOWLING.

—Mrs. Alabama Bowling, 76, died at her home near Lexington, Friday morning, following a brief illness. Besides her husband, J. C. Bowling, she is survived by three sons and four daughters. They are J. C. Bowling, Millersburg; I. N. Bowling, Louisville; G. M. Bowling, Clay City; Mrs. John Adams, Mrs. F. M. Reed, Mrs. Robert Reed, and Mrs. Geo. Reed, all of Lexington and Fayette county. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Allen Eriton, of Lexington. For some time Mrs. Bowling has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. John Adams, and it was there that her death occurred.

POTTS.

—Mr. Walter Potts, one of the best-known citizens of Carlisle, died at his home in that city Friday evening. He had been in poor health for several years, but during the past week he became suddenly seriously ill, and all hope of his recovery was abandoned. He was 74 years old, and for the past ten years had been engaged in the hotel business in Carlisle, and was well and favorably known to all the traveling men in this section of the State.

He is survived by a wife and one daughter, Mrs. J. C. Wareman. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS COURT AND BUSINESS IS VERY BRISK

Yesterday was county court day and there was a large crowd in town. Business in all branches was brisk and there was a good business done throughout the day. There were about one hundred head of mules on the market and the demand for the better class of stock was strong. This was due to the approach of the busy season for the farmers, and who seeking work stock were out for the best the market offered. The prices ranged from $165 to $250 per head the latter price being paid for the choice offering. A number of individual sales were made.

Claywood & McClintock bought two mules from Evan Tilton, of Robertson county, for $500; from Mr. Curtis, two for $420; from J. S. Mark, one at $152.50. They sold to M. H. Beard, one for $220; Clayton Curtis, two for $425; Noah Gray two for $450; P. J. Millett, one for $185, and to J. M. McDonald one for $165.

There were about 125 head of cattle at the stock pens of M. J. Murphy & Co., but the demand was very light, and few of them sold. W. H. Thompson sold thirty heifers to Mr. Connell, of Carlisle, at $30 per head. Frank Collier disposed of three combs at from $45 to $65 per head.

Fresh eggs being 12 cents apiece in Paris, France, dealers are offering storage eggs, aged from one to ten years, at 48 cents a dozen.

STOCK AND FARM NOTES

—Nine less cattle, seven less sheep and three less hogs per 100 people are in the United States than in 1910, the Agricultural Department reports.

Fletcher Mann, of Lexington, has sold to J. A. White, of the firm of Stone, Porter & White, Pulaski, Tenn., twenty-five of the best mare mules that have left the State this season. This load of mules was sold for $6,000, probably the highest priced load of mules that have gone out of Lexington.

Many valuable horses have died in Montgomery county during the past week, causing heavy losses, presumably from catarrhal trouble. The State veterinarian has been looking into the situation, and it is said gave it out that the trouble was caused by the feed that the animals had eaten, that had become spoiled. A number of high-bred saddle mares and brood mares are among the horses that died.

"You're a dead image of Taft," a Philadelphia drug clerk told the ex-President as he purchased a shaving stick. "Don't emphasize the dead part of it so," Taft replied.

NEW EXPRESS RATES WENT INTO EFFECT YESTERDAY.

The new express rates ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission went into effect yesterday. Although a few of the tariffs have suffered a small increase, most of them have been materially decreased. Experts have figured that considering all factors the decrease over the old rates will average more than 17 per cent.

Nicola Greely-Smith says: "The female of the species—every species save the human—is profoundly moral and all the sex crimes of civilization are unknown to her. Oh, well! there's the female spider who eats her husband in the very first hour of the honeymoon. Gee! Nicola, that does not sound very profoundly moral to us."
